Saturday, December 3rd, 10 A.M.

Second Edition.

The missing Soleste arrived this morning. It seems that in the first instance she sailed within two hundred and fifty miles of Hongkong, when she fell short of Coal. She was then put under canvas, when the forecast became badly sprung. In this crippled state nothing remained but to attempt to reach Manila, which she succeeded in doing on the 26th instant, and arrived here this morning.

The P. & O. Company require more dock accommodation at Bombay. The Superintendent at Bombay selects the ships whose bottoms are the most foul to go to China, because here they can be docked.

The Soleste's detention is entirely owing to this circumstance.

We are sorry to say that our supply of Soleste's Times has been wrongly printed in Singapore. By the last French mail we had about 175 copies more than we ordered—by the Soleste's we are about that amount short which is very annoying, as our Shanghai subscribers will not be able to receive any at all.
